

broadband for the world

amsterdam based

highly competitive packages chello broadband is one of the world's leading broadband internet companies, active in 12 countries across europe, latin america and australia and recipient of the best european consumer isp award.

chello delivers high-quality broadband portals and applications to a global audience over pc and television platforms.

to develop new television interactive services we are looking for experienced professionals with an internet and new media background:

e-commerce &
advertising managers

server & client
developers

content integration
managers

technical support
analysts

research manager

business analysts

international product marketing managers & product managers

due to our continued success and expansion chello requires individuals to work in an international environment with experience or a strong appreciation of the internet and a variety of skills in internet utilities and services to develop best in class broadband products for our pc platforms.

In the first instance please e-mail your C.V. with current salary details to

abailey@chello.com

chello.com
chello.at chello.be
chello.fr
chello.no
chello.nl
chello.se
chello.com.au
chello.co.nz
chello.de

chello
broadband for the world